THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE ELECTRO-SHOCK BATON.

The electro-shock baton is probably the world's favourite torture weapon. And no wonder. It causes excruciating pain, yet leaves little or no visible evidence of its use.

Especially when administered inside the body.

In the mouth, for example. Or the rectum. Or the vagina.

Amnesty International knows of at least 18 countries that use the electro-shock baton as a means of torture.

We have also identified over 100 companies around the world that sell such weapons.

That's why we're campaigning to ban the sale of electro-shock weapons to any country where torture is reported. Please pick up your pen, or your phone, and help us.

3 minutes of your time could prevent 3 hours of someone else's torture.
